AMERICAN LEGION

Legion Family,

It's already September, the kids are back in school, and hopefully the temperatures start to cool down a little. We will be holding our Patriot Day 9/11 ceremony at Station 204 on Buckeye Parkway, Saturday September 11th, at 8:30 AM. This is the 20th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks, and we hope you can attend.

We will be holding the Post Meeting September 9th in conjunction with a special Executive Committee meeting. We need all officers and as many members as possible so we can discuss a couple issues and vote on them.

And September means football season has arrived! We hope you'll come to the Post to watch the Buckeye games this season and stop in for all the other activities. Check the calendar, and follow us on Facebook for more updates. The American Legion has started our membership drive for 2022, and we'd appreciate it if you can renew your memberships early and help us find some new members.

We are continuing to monitor the COVID situation and will let everyone know if any changes to our current protocols will be required. Right now, there are no changes.

Thanks for your service and support, and see you at the Post,

Jeff Shipley
Commander

SONS of the AL

Greeting fellow SON's,

We really don't have to much to report on. The new membership cards are in and Jon has been working on getting them sent out. Our next meeting will be Tuesday September 7th at 6pm.

Remember 9-11-2001, 20 years ago!

Hope everyone is doing good and staying safe!

Dan Finnell
164 Squadron Commander

Chaplain's Corner

Lord Jesus, forgive us for looking for happiness in things of this world. Lead us to rejoice in the best gift, your forgiveness, and help us to put your temporary gifts in the proper perspective. We ask this in your holy and blessed name, Amen!

Please pray for our troops and their families!
